

Table with multiple columns containing financial data, including fund names, managers, and asset values. The table is organized into several vertical sections.