

(上接C52版)

Table with multiple columns listing financial data for various entities, including names, addresses, and financial metrics. The table is organized in three main vertical sections across the page.