

Table with multiple columns containing fund names, managers, and performance metrics. The table is organized into several vertical sections, each listing various investment funds and their associated details.