

Table with multiple columns containing financial data, including fund names, codes, and values. The table is organized into several vertical sections.