

Main table containing financial data, company names, and codes. The table is organized into columns and rows, with a header section at the top left.